DAILY DRAW POLICY

Rules for the Tigers Daily Draw

1. An entry in the competition is valid only if the subscription has been paid for the appropriate week's draw. The entry must be correctly marked as "paid" for the appropriate week's draw in the Societies records at the Clubs offices at the time of the draw.
2. It is the responsibility of members to ensure that the correct name and address has been recorded against their membership and reference numbers and that their agent has recorded their entry as "paid" for the appropriate weeks draw.
3. An entry not correctly marked, or left unmarked, will count as unsold and cannot win a prize.
4. Each member will be issued with a Prefix letter and Ten separate four digit numbers. To win a major prize, the members Prefix letter and number must match exactly the winning number drawn (digits must be in the same order), while consolation prizes may be won by members with the same number but a different Prefix letter as the major prizes drawn that week.
5. All members must be registered by Name and Address; Nom-de-plumes will not be accepted.
6. All Prefixes and numbers are issued by the Promoter, on behalf of the Society any alteration of Prefixes or numbers shown on membership cards will be considered void.

A result sheet showing winning entries will be published each week and winning numbers can also be found at www.castlefordtigers.com or in the Tigers Den, 7 Carlton St, Castleford WF10 1AD.
